

PSWD LREDA Workshop

Spirit Play

October 28, 2011: Start Time 8:30 AM - Workshop 9 AM – 5 PM
Camp deBenneville Pines, Angelus Oaks, California

Program Info

The co-developers (Dr. Nita Penfold, Rev. Ralph Roberts, and Beverly Leute Bruce) of Spirit Play see its purpose as helping children to find and to live their own answers to existential questions such as

- Who am I?
- Where did I come from?
- What is my purpose?
- What are my gifts?
- How do I choose to live my life?
- What happens when I die?
- Why am I lonely and sad sometimes?

Spirit Play is a proven educational method whose values support Unitarian Universalism

- Encourages independent thinking through wondering questions
- Gives children real choices within the structure of the morning
- Creates community of children in classroom of mixed ages
- Develops an underlying sense of the spiritual and the mystery of life
- Supports congregational polity through choice of lessons
- Volunteers were found to value the program as part of their own spiritual process

Spirit Play:

- Presents core stories of our faith and your particular church and its theology
- Helps children to make meaning through wondering and art
- Creates a spiritual community of children
- Supports multiple learning styles and challenges
